Code of Conduct for parents / guardians of junior members

Parents / guardians should:

- Ensure children arrive and are collected on time.
- Explain to their children the importance of adhering to the RTCC rules and the reasonable requests and instructions of the club volunteer supervisors and coaches.
- Inform the club of any relevant medical or additional needs.
- Treat volunteers respectfully.
- Encourage good sportsmanship.
- Raise concerns privately rather than in front of children.

Code of Conduct for junior members

Junior members attending the RTCC should:

- Be polite to all adults and other children.
- Respect opponents.
- Listen to volunteer supervisors and coaches.
- Not bully others.
- Not use inappropriate language.
- Tell an adult if something worries you.
- Respect chess club equipment, especially chess clocks and wooden boards
- Respect bowls club equipment and keep off the bowling greens at all times.

Photography and Social Media Policy

- Parents / carers shall be asked to give consent before photographs are taken.
- No names shall be published with photographs without additional consent.
- Images shall be used only for club purposes, for use on the club website or for advertising the club's services or events.
- Volunteers shall not communicate privately with juniors via telephone, email or any form of social media.